Holy Trinity, Loddon at 09:30*

INFORMAL WORSHIP

The Chet Valley Churches are pleased to announce another initiative: a new service of informal worship at 09:30 on the second, third and fourth Sundays of each month at Holy Trinity Church in Loddon.

What is INFORMAL WORSHIP?

Informal Worship will be a time when different sorts of people can come together to experience the wonder of God's love and respond to him.

What will happen at INFORMAL WORSHIP?

We will do lots of different things at informal Worship:

- We'll sing sometimes
- We'll tell stories sometimes
- We'll do games and activities sometimes
- We'll pray sometimes
- We'll explore the Bible sometimes
- We'll do some drama sometimes
- We'll have Baptisms sometimes
- We'll share bread and wine sometimes

Who is INFORMAL WORSHIP for?

Informal Worship is for everyone who would like to come, whatever your age, whatever your experience of church. Here we can approach God in our own way, whether we are committed to him or whether we are just wondering.

When does INFORMAL WORSHIP start?

Informal Worship starts on the 11th May 2008.

How long will INFORMAL WORSHIP go on?

We aim to take about 45 minutes for each service of Informal Worship. Then there will be a chance to have tea and coffee together until the next service starts at 10:45 (you can stay for that as well, if you like—but you don't have to!)

Will we see you at INFORMAL WORSHIP?

If you're there, we'll be delighted to see you!
