

STATION 9: SWEET SURPRISE

What a surprise the women had when they arrived at the tomb. Jesus, who they thought was dead had risen and was alive again. The disciples were sad and mournful because they thought Jesus was dead. What a day of joy and celebration for them all when they discovered that he was alive again.

Take one of the sweet eggs and eat it! Remember the stone being rolled away from the tomb. Remember the sweet surprise of the women and the disciples when they discovered that Jesus was alive and that the tomb was empty. Think about the chick that hatches out of a real egg leaving an empty shell behind - new life. Thank God for the new life that we have when we believe in Jesus.
