FOR THE PALM SUNDAY (MARCH 25TH) SERVICES

Xpressions Café, Sunday March 4th.

The theme was foolishness and wisdom, based on the Bible passage from 1 Corinthians chapter 1, for example verse 18: "For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God." The children made the collage of owls on the tree, and wrote what they thought is wise advice in the speech bubbles. They also chose to colour pictures of animals which were either behaving foolishly or wisely, hence the chicken and the monkeys! We finished the session by thinking about the story of the wise man building his house on the rock, and how we can live 'wisely' by following the way that Jesus showed us.

PALM SUNDAY SERVICES March 25th.

Apologies! In the March 'Contact' I gave the wrong information for the above date. It should have been as follows:

Sun 25th Palm Sunday	9.30am	Holy Communion	All Saints Chedgrave
	10.30 am	Morning Worship	St. Margaret Hardley
	10.45am	Morning Worship	St. John's Loddon
	6.30 for 7.00pm	Last Sunday Praise	St. John's Loddon

As I write this the snow has just about melted away - March certainly came 'in like a lion' (the beast from the east!), so let's hope the rest of the old rhyme proves to be true, and that it will 'go out like a lamb'! I found it almost miraculous that when the snow went, the signs of Spring were still there - buds on shrubs and trees, and bulbs pushing up through the frozen ground.

April 1st is Easter Sunday, and although this month's cover photograph may not at first seem to have much relevance to the events of Easter, there is quite a lot of symbolism in it: there are the three trees in the foreground, the cross in the background, and it was taken at sunrise, when we celebrate the Resurrection. April 1st is also, of course, April Fool's Day. I have read the occasional comment that seems to suggest this is somehow significant in pouring scorn on the belief in Christ's resurrection: seems to me that in raising Jesus from the dead, God had the last laugh: perhaps the greatest April Fool's trick of them all!

Happy Easter!

Enjoy all the events that are being planned in what I hope will be a warm and fine Spring!

Ministerial Musings

A pilgrimage is a journey especially a long one made to a sacred place, or one undertaken as a quest to pay homage. I have recently returned from a pilgrimage to the Holy Land, which was organised and led by Bishop Graham James. What a wonderful experience of sights and sounds it has been, seeing with our own eyes so much of what we have seen in our imaginations.

As we were based in Tiberias for the first few days we visited towns and open spaces around that area where Jesus taught and performed miracles. We were also taken on a boat on the huge inland waters of the Sea of Galilee. We travelled South along the Jordan valley, stood in the river Jordan where Jesus was baptised and renewed our own baptism promises there. Journeying on to our accommodation in Bethlehem, we then visited the place where Jesus was born and the shepherd's caves in the hills above the town. In Jerusalem we followed Jesus' path through the Garden of Gethsemane where it was so moving to stand where he anticipated his crucifixion on the cross. Walking along the Via Dolorosa gave an incredible sense of walking in his footsteps. We visited the rock upon which the cross stood, and a tomb where his body was taken after he had died. These sites are the most revered places to visit, but standing in the upper room in Jerusalem where Jesus was with his disciples after his resurrection, and also standing on the shore of the Sea of Galilee where he cooked fish for them on a charcoal fire, were the most awe inspiring places of all.

A challenging part of our journey was having to go through all of the security check points in and out of Bethlehem, and seeing soldiers carrying guns who were watching for any signs of disturbance. I was shocked to see the huge concrete walls separating the Israeli and Palestinian settlements and to learn about the plight of so many families at the Dheisheh refugee camp. It was difficult to witness such a situation caused by conflict. Sami Awad who founded The Holy Land Trust, came to speak to our group about the work of the trust which is based on strong principles of non-violence, as a catalyst to end all conflict and establish enduring and comprehensive peace in the Holy Land.

Jesus teaches us to love others as much as we love ourselves. He said 'Blessed are the peacemakers'. Please pray for Sami, his organisation and others who work towards peace and reconciliation, and pray too for all the people caught up in so many places of man-made conflict in the world today.

This pilgrimage has been a journey of a lifetime which has given me a wider perception of many things and food for thought as I recall all of those sights and sounds.

Jill Haylock.

Worship in the Chet Valley

You will be warmly welcomed to any of our services.
We hope to provide worship to suit everybody.

- Holy Communion is celebrated every Sunday at one or other of the churches in the Benefice, either Book of Common Prayer or Common Worship, with an informal Holy Communion service once a month in Chedgrave.
- Once a month there is an Evening Prayer service at Sisland.
- Services of Morning Worship are held in Loddon and Hardley.
- Last Sunday Praise is held on the Last Sunday of the month at St John's in Loddon: a chance to sing old and new Christian songs plus time to worship together.

Families and children are welcome at all our services.

Special provision is made at Chedgrave where there is a toilet and baby changing facilities.

- Xpressions Café Normally held at All Saints, Chedgrave, on the first Sunday every month between 10.00 a.m. and 12.00 noon. This is a relaxed and contemporary way of 'doing church'. You can come and go as you please for coffee, cake, crafts, games, songs and much more.
- Xtra! An exciting, informal service every Thursday after school in St John's Church.
- All Together Worship on the third Sunday.
This is designed to be as inclusive as possible, a mixture of formality and informality; traditional and modern; activity and stillness. In short, we will attempt to provide a service which will have points of connection for children and adults - indeed people of all ages and all backgrounds.

In Loddon and Chedgrave there is an opportunity to meet after the service and enjoy a chat over tea or coffee.

Home Communion: If you would like home communion, because you are unable for any reason to get to a Sunday service, please contact the clergy or the Church Office and we will arrange for someone to bring communion to you.

Times and details of the services can be found in the centre pages of the magazine.

Thanksgivings & Baptisms

You are welcome to request thanksgiving and baptism for your children. Thanksgiving Services may be held at any time in the churches by arrangement with the clergy. They are an opportunity to give thanks for the gift of a new child and to celebrate this with family and friends in the presence of God.

Baptisms are usually held within the Sunday worship in our churches. They are an opportunity to acknowledge and celebrate the new life we have in Jesus and to welcome a child into God's family, the Church.

Please contact Rev Alison Ball on 01508 528126

THE SISLAND CHRONICLE

Hi! I'm Freddie, T.& J.'s Jack Russell, and this is a page from my diary. I should have sent it earlier, but my paws don't fit the key thingy and I have to get J. to do it when she has time! We had snow today, T. says its frozen water – but I don't believe him, as its white, and water is wet. Snow is lovely stuff to run about in, and you can see where all the birds and bunnies have been. I haven't seen much snow before – I'm only six - and It's quite cold stuff, so I spent the rest of the day on my stool in front of the fire! J. says I'm a wimp, but my fur is a bit thin underneath. (She puts on all sorts of coats and hats when she goes out.) I've got a lovely coat – but its only on top, and my legs aren't very long so my tummy touches the snow. 'F.'

On old maps there was a track leading from the Ingloss Lane T junction with the Mundham road, straight across the field, over the Sisland Beck, across a meadow to end on White House Lane in Sisland. It was in use in the early 1960's by school children going to catch the bus. The bridge was eventually washed away in a flood. In a dry summer it still shows as a 'crop mark' on the ground. The Roman road from Halesworth to Bungay crossed the Waveney into Norfolk, and the way through Ditchingham, along Luggs lane in Broome and then on to Sisland – which I have travelled along many times

Allotment User Group

A suggestion has come out of discussions following the recent de-silting work, that allotment holders form a Users' Group, the purpose of which would be to provide a communication link with the Parish Council and represent the interests of allotment holders in maintaining and improving the site. If you would be interested in being part of this group then you are invited to attend an informal meeting at the Parish Council office on Thursday 27th April at 7:30pm.

Vandalism on Jubilee Hall Playing Fields

Yet again there has been significant vandalism on the Jubilee Hall Playing Field. User notices, which cost approx. £50 each, and waste bins which are significantly more expensive, are regularly vandalised. No sooner have replacements been provided than concerted efforts are employed, by the use of heavy duty cutters, to destroy the notices whilst the bins are forcibly removed from their bases. The Parish Council is required to have the User Notices in situ but the cost of continued replacements is becoming prohibitive. Unfortunately, the cost for all these replacements is met by all residents through their Council Tax bills.

The latest act of vandalism has been on the gate at the Childrens' Play Area which has been completely removed from its hinges and left lying on the ground!

The Parish Council is keen to avoid these increasing costs but, more importantly, preventing anyone becoming injured by this activity. If you have any information about vandalism please do inform the Parish Council. Any information provided will, of course, be treated in strictest confidence.

Dog owners and Doggy Bins: there are two Doggy bins provided on the Jubilee Hall Playing Fields and it would be much appreciated if all dog owners would use these! It is very unpleasant and unhygienic for others to stand in your dogs' mess! The health implications for children coming into contact with the mess can be significant and extremely serious; PLEASE PUT YOUR DOG MESS IN THE BINS PROVIDED. Thank you

Next Meeting: The next meeting of the Parish Council is scheduled for Thursday 12th April 2018, to include the Annual Parish Meeting, commencing at 7.00pm in the Library Annexe. Members of the public are welcome to attend meetings and will be given the opportunity to speak. The agenda will be displayed on the notice board on Church Plain and on the council's website (see below) at least three days before the meeting. A list of the meeting dates in 2018 are on the LPC website.

Contact Us: Please telephone the Parish Council on 01508 522020, or email on clerk@loddonpc.org.uk. The office in the Library Annexe, Church Plain, Loddon is open on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings between 9.00am and midday if you would like to visit in person. More information is available on the parish council's website: www.loddonpc.org.uk or find us on Facebook under Loddon Parish Council

The Barclays Cashpoint Machine: We have been working closely with Barclays UK because the Cashpoint machine at the old bank premises wasn't working through the end of December and January despite their promises to have it operating until June this year. We are delighted to report that eventually they repaired it and it should have been working fully.

We rely on you telling us if there are any local issues we might be able to address directly such as this one. Speaking to big companies such as Barclays on behalf of the Business Association has a pretty strong effect which is harder to get when we do it as individuals.

We also contacted South Norfolk Council after the Church Plain car park was closed for two days in January due to essential repairs to the sunk drain in the entrance. We know that the shortage of parking availability affected local traders and there had been no real notice given of the closure. Thankfully they reopened later that afternoon.

The Christmas lights: These were taken down by a small hardworking team and we would like to thank them all for giving up their Sunday morning. Please let us know if you would like to help put them up again late autumn. Relying on volunteers saves Loddon the expense of over £4000 a year to put them up, which is fantastic and means you get the lights to enjoy each Christmas.

The Loddon Street Fayre: Sunday 27 May 11.00 -4.00p.m.

Please put this date in your diaries. There have been lots of requests to book a stall, and spaces are going fast. Local groups including Loddon WI, the British Legion and Guide Dogs for the Blind have taken advantage of the free pitch offer to promote themselves and we welcome all local groups, but they will need to book as soon as possible.

We still want more entertainers ranging from Singers and Dancers to magicians and other fun performers to make the event a fun place to sit and relax while enjoying some talent.

Helpers on the day are needed too either to set up and clear away or as stewards throughout the event - please get in touch and pass the word around.

The LDBA: We are here as a community group to support the success of Loddon and the surrounding district and want to make a difference for businesses working hard here to give us such a diverse offering within the community. Membership is very low and all funds raised are ploughed straight back into making things happen to improve life here for everyone. Members have the opportunity to attend social functions and get information to help such as a free talk on business banking. Please join us and benefit from working together to get the best for everyone.

Thanks

Hales and Heckingham Parish Council

We start by advising that the Parish Council has held its request for funding from South Norfolk District Council (Precept) at the same level as last year.

There are three exciting developments within the Parishes at the moment.

The most obvious is the commencement of the construction of the new roundabout on the A146. Norfolk Council Highways keep us up to date with progress and the aerial photos that they are taking are on the Parish website. A bonus for the Village is that the 'Gates' * we have applied for at the east end of the B1136 will be erected and paid for in full by Norfolk County Council Highways.

 this is the term used to describe a welcome barrier at the side of the road at the entrance point of the Village.*

We have purchased the defibrillator mentioned in earlier publications and this has been installed on the wall of the Masala Garden Indian Restaurant. A number of local residents will receive training in the use of this potentially life saving equipment.

Our third important development is that the Council has made a decision on the way ahead for the playing field and we expect the new equipment to be installed sometime in June this year. There will be a range of equipment to suit all ages from toddlers through to adults. We believe that we have chosen a good range to cater for as many tastes as possible but with a limit to what we can spend there will always be something to add. We've made a good start.

We continue to look for more councillors. We have two vacancies at the time of writing and would welcome enquiries from anyone who would like to join us.

St Mary's in Sisland is gearing up for Spring, for apart from planting a new hedge (volunteers welcome), there will be TEAS on Easter Sunday 2 – 4 pm. A mystery demonstration, and a churchyard competition – Matching Birds with their Eggs, there might be interesting prizes as well. PS. Freddie might come to meet his fans!

Holy Trinity Bellringers

Sunday service ringing at Loddon continues throughout the Winter months and the Tuesday practice nights have been well attended, despite the cold nights. We regularly have ringers from Beccles and Surlingham come over to our practice which, once a month, is held on our Ten bell simulator.

We supported the final practice at St. Peter Mancroft on January 8th before the bells were silenced in preparation for building work to commence in the tower. Since then much has been done to prepare the inside of the ringing chamber to accept a new ringing gallery and heritage centre and also work has been done to strengthen the bell frame itself. A lot of the money for this has been raised by the ringers who were also awarded a grant by the Lottery fund. We entered a team into another quiz and chips fundraising event specially for this project which is expected to be completed by the summer of this year.

While the bells at St. Peter Mancroft are unringable, its ringers are travelling around other towers to practice and we at Loddon hosted them on Monday 5th February. We joined them to ring on our simulated ten bell setup with our two Dumbbells in action. We also rang a Quarter Peal of Grandsire Caters, which included two of their members ringing with eight of our ringers, conducted for the first time by our own Richard Salisbury. We have also rung other Quarter peals at Loddon since the beginning of the year of Cambridge and Yorkshire Royal, Erin and Stedman Caters, Grandsire Triples, Superlative and Kent Treble Bob Major.

Members supported an Eastern branch practice meeting on Saturday 10th February, held on the six bells at All Saint's in Catfield. We have also been to practices held at Bungay, Ashill and Hethersett. Sadly, a band member from Gt. Yarmouth Minster passed away recently, so as tributes, we rang specially arranged Quarter peals at Loddon, Norton Subcourse and at the Minster itself. A peal was also rung at Rumburgh. We also helped out at a twelve bell practice which took place at the Minster on Thursday 22nd February in preparation for ringing at the funeral by the local band.

Nation's bells to ring out together to mark Armistice Centenary

The 100th Anniversary of the Armistice

It is a sad fact that about 1400 bell ringers died in the 1914-1918 war. Bells were silent during the war but gloriously rang out to celebrate the signing of the Armistice on 11th November 1918. The 100th anniversary of the Armistice will be commemorated in a similar way across the country on November 11th this year. It is hoped that 1400 + new ringers will be recruited across the country and you could be one of those new recruits at Loddon. We have a fine ring of 8 bells and good facilities to teach new ringers. You may have family members that were lost during the Great War and this would be an ideal opportunity to remember them in a very special way.

This is where you come in.

Ringers come from diverse backgrounds and span all age groups to share a fascinating team hobby in both a mentally stimulating and social setting.

We practice on Tuesday nights from 7.30 p.m. until 9.00 p.m. but at the start of the learning process there will be practices at other convenient times when the bells are silenced to get potential ringers "up to speed" so that confidence in handling a bell is quickly developed.

If you would firstly like to join us at one of our practices before making a firm commitment please contact the tower captain, David Webb on Loddon 528468.

Royal British Legion-Loddon & District Branch

Late last month we held a meeting with representatives from many Loddon organisations to start formulating provisional arrangements for this year's Remembrance parade through Loddon, and further meetings will be arranged as required throughout the year.

As you will know, 2018 marks one hundred years since the end of the first World War. Not only that, but this year's Remembrance Sunday actually falls on the 11th November, the hundredth anniversary to the day of the signing of the armistice to end the war so it is vitally important more than usual that all goes smoothly.

The next branch meetings will be on Mondays 16th April and 21st May at the Kings Head Loddon. For advice in the meantime please phone our branch secretary Colin Hartley on 01508 521136.

NEWS FROM THE LODON PRIMARY FEDERATION

Our Infant and Junior Schools have been having a busy and exciting time during February and the March.

KIMMY'S ZOO

Our Year 2 children had a lovely time learning about the African Animals that were brought in by Kimmy's zoo. They met a tortoise, meerkat, millipede and snake. Some children were even brave enough to hold the snake around their neck.

CHINESE NEW YEAR

Year 1 has been learning about Chinese New Year. We had a Chinese visitor come into school and she told us why Chinese people celebrated New Year at a different time to our New Year (because of the moon calendar). She answered our questions on Chinese New Year and taught us how to say Happy New Year in Chinese and how to write good luck messages to our families.

CASMA

The choir performed at OPEN in Norwich on Tues 6 Feb with 6 other schools. They sang beautifully with a band from London called Khiyo, singing songs from India together with Indian dancing. A great night and a great experience for the children. Thank you to the parents that came and supported the school, and Rev

Alison who supported the choir.

AFRICAN FUSION VISIT TO YEAR 2

Fun, fantastic African drumming with djeme drums, an African dance with lots of clapping and stamping, plus a song in Swahili. The children were very enthusiastic and joined in confidently.

ROAD SAFETY TRAINING

Year 1's went out with Sarah from Norfolk County Council to have some Road Safety Training. The Children learned about the different lights on the car and what these lights mean, the dangers of cars in car parks, different types of paths and how and where to cross the road safely. A big thank you Sarah and to the parents that gave up their time to help take the groups out.

JULIA EDWARDS

Recently we had a visit from the author Julia Edwards, who has published 5 books in the Scar Gatherer Series. It was a really fantastic day with all the children getting a session with her to learn about how to create tension in their story writing. The children were clearly very inspired by her and asked some great questions at the end of the day. This was followed by an extremely popular book signing session.

FORENSIC SCIENCE DAY

Year 6 visited Hobart High School for a Forensic Science Day: 6B on Monday 26th February and 6C on Tuesday 27th February.

In addition to all the above, the school celebrated WORLD BOOK DAY on Thursday 1st March, with our usual Book for Breakfast event and dressing up as our favourite book characters, and will be having a Non-uniform day on Friday 23rd March with donations going to SPORT RELIEF.

Congratulations to our Schools

In the March 'Contact' I was so pleased to read reports from both Loddon Schools — their exam results, of course, but also the variety of learning methods employed to encourage and excite students' further educational research. I only wish I had had the same stimulation at my grammar school—but this was many years ago!

I do congratulate both head teachers and staff involved and hope to read further reports of progress in curriculum later in the summer term.

Congratulations all round.

Loddon Flower Club

April 3rd Jacquie Aldous : 'That's Entertainment - Act 3'
Hobart High School at 7.15. Everyone is most welcome.

Loddon Women's Institute

On February 21st our own member, Sue Sursham, shared with us her experiences of her travels in the Antarctic. The evening flew past as Sue gave us a really interesting talk all illustrated with her own beautiful photographs. She was also able to enlighten on us on some of the history of Antarctica and the steps that have been taken to preserve the environment of this (so far) unspoilt part of the world.

Next Meeting: April 18th Birthday Party

The Jubilee Hall., George Lane 7.15 for 7.30

Loddon W.I. was formed in 1930, making 2018 our 88th anniversary. Those early monthly meetings were held in Loddon's Lecture Hall on a Tuesday afternoon, when 65, or sometimes more, ladies attended and listened to an uplifting or instructive speaker. This was followed, of course, by tea and cakes.

Over the years, our numbers dwindled, not because our speakers were any less interesting or our cakes less tasty, but because many of the surrounding villages set up their own W.I.s, and ladies left to join their local group. We now have a membership of about 26 and at many of our meetings non-members, and even husbands, come along to join us as visitors. If ladies would like to join us, either as prospective members, or visitors, just come along and say hello.

We usually have a Trading Stall each month - a bit like a Bring and Buy, except the 'bringer' gets the money (with a small commission to W.I. Funds). We also have a competition at most meetings: nothing too serious, but it gives our members a chance to show their various skills and imagination.

Meetings start at 7.30pm by welcoming our speaker who will then entertain us for approximately 45 minutes to one hour. We then have a cup of tea and a chat and complete the meeting with W.I. business. Friends and visitors are welcome to join.

At the Jub Club Friday nights. Eyes down at 7-30pm. All welcome. Two jackpots that regularly top £100 with 10 games per session plus a flyer game. Evening usually ends around 9pm.

Chedgrave & District Women's Institute

Unfortunately., due to adverse weather conditions, our meeting in February was cancelled. Hopefully the weather for our April meeting will be more like Spring.

Next Meeting: Tuesday April 24th 2.00 pm. at All Saints Church Centre
We will have the opportunity to discuss and vote on the Resolution(s) chosen to go forward to the Annual meeting in Cardiff in June.
Also, on the same afternoon we will have a Sales Table, so start looking for things to bring along. Home produce, cakes, etc, are always welcome..

Thursday April 5th

Doors open 7pm, film starts 7.30.

Our next presentation is “DUNKIRK” rated 12. Directed by Christopher Nolan. Starring Fionn Whitehead, Kenneth Branagh, Mark Rylance and Tom Hardy.

This visual masterpiece relies on image perhaps more than dialogue to capture the evacuation of nearly 400,000 Allied troops from the beaches of Dunkirk in 1940. Told through 3 time lines of a soldier, a small boat crew and an RAF pilot the “Miracle of Dunkirk” unfolds. Nolan seems to personally try to dispel the feeling the RAF did little during the battle with some spectacular flying sequences shot without the CGI we come to take for granted. Hope you enjoy.

Loddon & District Local History Group

1. Our February meeting started with our brief AGM.

Jan Bensley [Chair] reported that, happily, we had had another successful year with well attended meetings. A varied programme has been prepared for the coming year with some old friends and some new faces.

Sadly two of the committee (Jenny Bemment & Mary Littlefield) had resigned prior to the meeting as other activities were making demands upon their time. Our thanks to them for their support to date. A plea for volunteers to join the committee was made.

Christine Hartley reported that we were in a sound financial position, and could keep the fee for meetings at the present rate of £3 for the coming year, though the cost of Speakers needed to be monitored.

Carol Carpenter briefly took the Chair as the Committee stood down and were re-elected (proposed by Carol & seconded by David Crease)

Chair: Jan Bensley; Treasurer: Christine Hartley; Secretary: Elvie Herd; Refreshments/Publicity: Jill Chandler, Colin Hartley and Anne Crossman.

2. Loddon Parish Study update:

David Crease reported that we dug a test pit in Chedgrave and two in Loddon. There had been two geo-phys surveys, one in Loddon near the Vicarage, the second in Haddiscoe in the new Church yard, with a view to digging a test pit later this year. The Loddon pits (especially the pit near two earlier pits near the Vicarage where the mole hills were particularly productive on the geo-phys day) have confirmed the results of previous years that there was medieval occupation in Loddon. Could we dig a pit in your garden or field?

Documentary work continues, with Peter Smith working on the 1911 Chedgrave Census, Ian Martin working on Electoral Rolls and Elvie working on early wills and Churchwardens Accounts. Anne has resumed work on Mary Palmer's account book & diaries and we look forward to this being completed.

Jan has completed another House survey (7 Bridge Street) lodged in the library and at Gressenhall.

3. Claire Bradshaw, Community Archaeologist based at Gressenhall, introduced the Lottery funded Water, Mills and Marshes: the Broads Landscape Partnership will work to further conserve and enhance the built and natural heritage of the area between Norwich, Great Yarmouth, Lowestoft, Acle and Loddon following the course of the rivers Yare, Bure and Waveney.

We thanked her for her support over the years and wished her well for the future, as sadly Community Archaeology is a victim of the Local Authority funding cuts.

4. Carol Carpenter showed a video created by Peter Larter, a photo montage describing the 1912 floods in Norwich, followed by pictures of Read Any Good Books Lately?

"To the millions of readers who love books, reading is as natural and as necessary to life as breathing. Without books the world for us would be an arid desert with no footprints from the past, no oases of comfort for the present and no sign-posts to the future." P.D. James

"101b Penalty," by Dick Francis

A terrific story - a thriller, of course, with horse-racing as part of the story, but in the background this time. The main part of the book is the love between a father and a son, and the father's new career in politics, which someone attempts to thwart using various murderous methods. Be warned - if you read this book, the suspense is such that you will find it very difficult to put it down until you reach the end!

"The End of the Wasp Season," by Denise Mina

Another thriller, this one set in Glasgow. Very well written - a real page-turner. All sorts of people come to life (metaphorically!) on the pages of this book. At the heart of it is an extremely dysfunctional family, a suicide, several adolescents and a pregnant female detective. Households range from the privileged to the poverty-stricken. Brilliant.

"The Small Hours," by Susie Boyt

Harriet Mansfield is someone who cares deeply for other people, but feels inadequate and unloved herself; this is thanks to the way she was brought up by parents who, it seems, could not show her love, and to a brother who appears to have suffered traumatically at the hands of their father, but blames Harriet for some reason. It takes time for these things to become clear in the story, and what does become clear is that Harriet has received psychiatric care in the past. When she has some money left to her she opens a small nursery school and is at her happiest working hard and keeping the children happy. It is impossible not to feel admiration and affection for Harriet, who tries so hard to overcome her dark memories.

There is humour and sadness in this tender and unusual novel.

(A note that may be of interest: Susie Boyt is the daughter of artist Lucian Freud and great-granddaughter of Sigmund Freud).

"A God in Ruins," by Kate Atkinson

Sometimes a book is so good that it's impossible to say how good it is without sounding gushing. This is one such book. Comments from critics include the words, "Dazzling," "Breathtaking," "Magnificent," "Heartbreaking," "Gripping, often deliriously funny yet emotionally devastating."

The story follows the life of Teddy Todd who - after discovering that teaching is not for him - finds himself first becoming a bomber pilot in World War 2 and then a husband, father, grandfather and writer of nature notes for a small periodical. His life is full of achievements and disappointments.

The depth of understanding shown by Kate Atkinson of the relationships between people is astonishing. Her descriptions of the dangers faced by those who flew bombers in World War 2 are so vivid, it's as if she was there.

Equally sensitive is her description of what it is like for a little boy to be parentally unloved and unwanted (not Teddy, but his grandson). The part of the book devoted to that section is very moving.

The story is not written in a natural sequence, but skips about from one period to another and at first it can become tricky to discover who and when the author is writing about, but suddenly it all falls into place and we are carried along in the way she intends us to be.

Kate Atkinson is a wonderfully talented writer and A God in Ruins is an exceptionally good book.

(The pre-cursor of this novel is Life After Life, and it may be better - but it is not essential - to read that book before this one).

Nature Notes

*"O, to be in England now that April's there,
And whoever wakes in England sees, some morning, unaware,
That the lowest boughs and the brushwood sheaf
Round the Elm tree bole are in tiny leaf,
While the Chaffinch sings on the orchard bough
In England - now!"*

These famous lines are very familiar to all of us, written by Robert Browning (1812-1889) and still relevant today. Unfortunately the Elms are no longer with us after the victory of Dutch Elm Disease in recent years, but the sentiment is the same. Browning had an eye for nature and this poem reflects his love of the English countryside. Getting on for 200 years later our way of life is very different and land use has altered beyond recognition. Despite these changes, wildlife, although much depleted, is still trying to survive and in some cases making a comeback. Otters in particular seem to be flourishing as our awareness of pollution in rivers and water courses is being tackled and fish are surviving in larger numbers to feed them.

April is the 'awakening' each year. The first real month of Spring when migrant birds return to nest along with our resident species. Hopefully some of us will, once more, hear the Cuckoo call and if you do, please don't forget to let me know. As buds burst on the trees and their flowers appear, so too do the insects which thrive on the pollen they produce. Blue Tits will lay their eggs and when the young hatch it is estimated that a brood of 10 chicks will need around 1000 caterpillars a day to eat. No wonder they are so busy in and out of your nest boxes. I am amazed that any caterpillars are left to develop into butterflies and moths. If they do then these too will become prey for birds and bats.

Hedgehogs should be around now and if you are lucky enough to have one in your garden it will happily eat up all of your unwanted slugs. Tadpoles will have escaped from their jelly and be free swimming. In their early days they will feed on the algae that grows on water plants. Later, when their internal gills develop, they will eat tiny creatures like Water Fleas and even each other, should food be in short supply. If you have any in your garden ponds then a couple of pinches of fish food flakes may help them over this difficult time in their development and maybe more Frogs will make it to adulthood. The importance of the food chain has been a much discussed topic recently but it cannot be over stated how important it is to sustain things from the bottom to feed creatures at the top.

Some time ago I mentioned the Wild Patch Project being set up by the South Yare Wildlife Group. This has been taken on board by many people now and hopefully will spread even further this year. If you are interested, take a look at their website for more information. They have a really good animation to watch too.

As the days get warmer and we venture out more, don't forget about Wheatfen at Surlingham. Too often we seem to travel to places further afield when there are lovely areas to visit near by. This reserve is open every day and is free to all (although donations are always welcome). A programme of events is held each year with specialised walks and study groups but an afternoon walk, just noting what you can see, is really enjoyable. There are so many species of wildlife there and I believe it is the only reserve in the country that has recorded sightings every day since Ted Ellis started it so many years ago.

Here's hoping the sun shines.

Gardening Notes

As I write these notes, the last of the snow drifts are melting. Last week was quite a weather event; fortunately it doesn't happen very often. The last time was 1987, and as happened then all the roads were blocked for a couple of days with some back roads still not cleared. I would like to thank the local farmers who helped clear the roads, and every one who helped those who couldn't help themselves. It's always good to see the local community working together.

Because of all the snow on already wet ground it will take a little while for the soil to be dry enough to plant seeds. It's best to plant into good conditions, so be patient. When conditions allow sow seeds of main crop peas, summer cauliflowers, summer cabbage, beetroot, spring onions, radish, carrots, parsnips, lettuce, leeks, and over wintering brassicas such as sprouts, cauliflowers and cabbage. Main crop potatoes should be planted in April. If you find growing from seed a pain then buy vegetable plants: we have them in stock from mid March.

In the greenhouse early sowings into pots of runner beans, French beans, sweetcorn, pumpkins, and melons etc can be made, with the aim to plant them into the garden in May. Make sure they don't dry out and protect from frost. Tomatoes and cucumbers plants can be planted out in the greenhouse in April. Ventilate on hot days and protect on cold days. By now lawns will be growing strongly, so it's best to cut weekly, and where moss is present apply a feed and moss killer. This will keep the lawn looking good through the spring.

Bedding plants can be planted out this month: prepare the soil and apply a fertiliser and plant the bedding plants out, leaving the recommended space between plants as its easy to plant the plants too close when they are small, and then find when they are mature that everything is squashed up.

When the soil warms up bugs and diseases will be a problem. Treat with the appropriate chemicals early. If its left too late the plants will suffer.

Weeds in paths and driveways should be sprayed off with a residual weed killer as they emerge . This should stop weed growth until late summer.

All we need now is plenty of sun shine to warm our backs and dry the soil out.
