Home Tutor Needed ?

Leigh has been in Norfolk classrooms since 2009 and is based in Poringland

Q. Does your child need a helping hand to catch-up or to get ahead?

Q. Are they worried about SATS or do they just need some extra confidence?

"As a fully qualified teacher I have taught children from Reception to Year 6."

"I still teach and have a current Enhanced Disclosure DBS Certificate. I charge £25 per hour. Lessons – Late afternoon/Early evenings/Weekends/Holidays." "I still teach and have a current Enhanced Disclosure DBS Certificate. I charge £25 per hour. Lessons – Late afternoon/Early evenings/Weekends/Holidays."

Contact Leigh Cole on 07766 705988 or leighcole1@gmail.com

"Quote 'Loddon Contact' for a 1st lesson discount. Meet me beforehand for your peace of mind."

Leigh is a qualified teacher with 11 years experience, currently working as a 'Supply Teacher' and who is also available as a Personal Tutor, assisting children and helping them to gain confidence and achieve more for SATS.

Lots of children can benefit from additional help as, let's face it, the classroom is not the same place that it used to be.

There were less distractions and no other adults needed in the classroom. Class numbers were low and with less distractions, children were able to concentrate and enjoy their time in the classroom, achieving, developing and progressing.

Less funding and an 'Inclusion' policy has meant increased class numbers with the addition of children who were previously taught outside of mainstream education. In the classroom, some children require more attention than others. This can mean that 80% of the teacher's time spent dealing with 20% of the children in the class – delivering teaching differentiation or simply with classroom management. Extra staff in the classroom make a difference, but they usually work with only one child.

Increased class numbers over recent years, bring distractions in the classroom, making it difficult for children to always hear, or understand, the teacher's instructions. What this often means is that the learning progression of everyone in the class is only a fraction of what it should be.

Each child learns at their own rate and by different means, and a personal tutor can help your child to keep abreast of learning and achieve to their full potential.

Your child might have their own learning difficulties to deal with, or they may just be one of the ones swamped by the class numbers. Just think what a difference it can make to your child's learning to have a teacher who can sit with them, exclusively. No distractions. An instant one-to-one appraisal and feedback with a personalised approach.

Suddenly, your child is able to understand something that eluded them at school. That might be the start of other 'learning moments' which, when combined, may be enough to re-engage them with learning, keep up with their peers, perhaps even overtake them. Who knows?

That can happen when you engage the services of a qualified personal tutor who cares about the future of your child, almost as much as you do.
